Job Responsibilities

To work as a freelancer you must oblige to the following things:

1. The content must be unique and related to Banking Awareness, Financial Awareness, Legal Aptitude, Quantitative Aptitude, Reasoning Ability, English Grammar, Accounting and General Awareness.
2. The minimum word requirement for each topic is 500 words. There is no maximum limit of words.
3. The word limit is not applicable to the shortcut tricks of static GK.
4. You must get your topics approved from me prior writing because we have covered countless topics and repeating the same topic is redundant. If you send us a topic which is not approved by us prior writing, then we do not publish that.
5. Quizzes and Questions will not be accepted at any cost. We require editorial articles only.
6. If any of your articles is found copied, you will not be given second chance to rectify your mistake. Definitions, Quotations are exception. To check plagiarism, use the following website: smallseotools.com/plagiarism-checker/ This will help you to know if your content is unique or not. Do not send us the content prior scrutinizing it under the plagiarism checker. We, then re-check and verify the content's originality using other methods and at any point of time, your content found to be copied, your payment will be stopped for the other articles as well. Do your work with 100% honesty
7. We have all the authority to reject your article if found needless, short, out of the syllabus.

8. It is your prime responsibility to check the sites regularly to find whether your article is published and if there is any comment or query on your write-up you are expected to answer it.

9. Due to privacy and security concerns, your name will not be mentioned anywhere on the site or with the articles written by you.

10. You must keep a record of your work because we ask for your worksheet at the end of the month to tally with our worksheet and to initiate the payment.

11. If you are already running your own website related to the same field that we are in, you are not eligible for this post.

12. Irregularity won't be accepted. You must send us either one article a day or three articles a week. If you fail to do so, we won't allow you to work.

(In case of medical or genuine personal issue, this condition can be altered.)

Payment

1. The payout of each article varies between Rs. 150-250 depending upon the worth of the article. The worth of the article is measured by the number of readers it attracted, the shares it gets, the possibility to update the article etc.

2. Payment is done from 1st to 10th of every month. There will be no weekly payment.

3. Mode of Payment will be Online Bank Transfer or UPI.

4. The final price of each article will be decided by us.

5. Freelancers do not get offer letters or appointment letters. If you work with us for 6 months, we will surely provide you with a certificate of appreciation.

6. The payout for each article can be increased if the write-up is exceptionally well-written and appreciated by the readers.

7. We expect honesty,, regularity and hard work from you. We offer you a chance to share your knowledge with countless people and earn while you learn

Terms and Conditions

It is a platform that gives creative enthusiasts an ocean of opportunities to showcase and thereby contribute their work to this website. However any platform lacking clear & absolute implementation of rules & regulations is bound to invite inefficiency and chaos. Therefore, we request you to read and adhere to the rules & regulations mentioned below:

1. You must write only on the topics assigned/approved
2. If you are feeling extra creative and are about to start writing on a topic of your choice, then while we appreciate your zeal, we also advise you to go visit bankexamstoday.com and make sure that no article is already published on & around the same topic as we do not appreciate duplicacy. However, if your article is better than the already published one, then we might consider it to be published.
3. An article will only be published once its content goes through and clears our rigorous language and plagiarism test.
4. You are requested to adhere to grammatical rules while writing at all times as quality of the article is of paramount importance.
5. You will be paid only for "published" articles.
6. At the end of the day, you are required to send an email at writer.bankexamstoday@gmail.com mentioning all the articles (topic wise) that you have sent us and also update your submission details on Google Sheets (will be provided to you).
7. After you leave the job of content writer, you must not share the articles sent to us with some other blogging site. If done, a legal action will be taken.
8. Whatever material you send us, make sure the facts and information given are accurate and cross-checked. If we find any factual error in the article, then it will attract serious penalty.
9. Please send us a spreadsheet comprising the details of your published articles on 30th of every month.
10. Email us a list and in that which you will mention the weekly topics you are going to write about.
11. It is your prime responsibility to check our website regularly to confirm whether your article is published or not.
12. Payment will be deducted for the incorrect solutions/explanations.
13. A writer cannot come and go as & when he/she feels like.
14. No discussion after an article is rejected.

How to Start?

After you agree to comply with our terms and conditions, follow these steps to start your job.

1. Send an email to editorofbankexamstoday@gmail.com cc: writer.bankexamstoday@gmail.com with subject "Content Writer (Subject e.g. Banking, English, Reasoning, Quantitative Aptitude, Legal Awareness, General Awareness etc.)"
2. After your affirmation, I will share a Google sheet with you, where you must write the list of topics you want to cover and I will be writing approved/disapproved. If your topic is approved then you can work on it.
3. A Dropbox folder will be shared with you. You have to upload your content in that folder. Once the article is published, we will delete the article from the folder and add the link of the published article to the Google sheet.
4. A deadline will be mentioned in front of each article and you must finish your work accordingly. If you do not send us the work on the assigned date, we will not accept that. If there is going to be a delay in the content, you must inform us.
5. Regularity will be appreciated.
6. Updating Dropbox and Google sheet is must
7. Completing your task on the assigned date is must.
8. Only serious writers are requested to accept the proposal. Do not waster our time if you are not willing to work with dedication

With Best Regards
